TFI Community Child Care, Inc. Making Transitions

Junction City, KS, March 6, 2009 – TFI Community Child Care, Inc. is pleased to share that in conjunction with USD 475, a new child care center opened this week. The new facility, USD 475 Child Development Center, is located at 1803 Elmdale Road. TFI Community Child Care, Inc. will be the management agency for this new facility. The current TFI CCC facility, located at 1735 W. Ash, Junction City will be closing. The current lease expires on April 30, 2009 and was not renewed. TFI CCC will continue to operate the child care center through that date with utmost dedication and care as they transition to the new facility.

TFI CCC realizes that this affects the families and children they serve, and thus are committed to helping parents through this transition of locating new child care. Many existing staff members of the TFI Community Child Care Center will move to USD 475's new center over the next few months. TFI CCC, Inc. also currently operates and manages Sunshine Acres Montessori School in Lawrence as well as Tots and Tales Montessori School in Kansas City. With USD 475's Child Development Center, TFI CCC cares for over 350 children.

TFI Community Child Care, Inc., established in 2007, is a member of the TFI Family of Companies and a not-for-profit agency. TFI Family Services, Inc. works to diversify their programs to meet the needs of children and families in Kansas. An early childhood program was a perfect way to stay true to TFI's mission of providing excellence and care. The growth and development of the Junction City community made this location a perfect fit to establish our first location for child care services. As TFI makes this transition to provide child care services through USD 475, TFI is grateful for how the community has embraced and supported our efforts.
